Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. Claims 1-12 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Carmichael (612029).

Carmichael teaches a game comprising 8x8 grid playing surface of square arrays, die (12,14,16), first playing pieces (king, queen etc.), and second playing pieces (pawns).

Applicant may note that rules/methods for playing such as how movement or position of one playing piece in the outer array changes the movement of playing pieces in the inner array do not further add any limitation to the apparatus in the claims.

For the purpose of arguments there are several possible moves in a game of chess where positioning/movement of one player's queen, rook, bishop is a cause of concern for opponent's playing pieces.

It is common in most strategic games to provide movement capabilities to playing pieces and placing them in strategic positions likely involves changing positions of opponent pieces for chances of being captured. In such situations opponent pieces are moved away from the line of attack for safety. In order to make the game entertaining and exciting, it would have been obvious to use such movement capabilities of playing pieces. One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested having such movement rules for playing pieces.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 4/20/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Mode of operation is a rule and does not further limit a claimed apparatus.

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
